

Our Journey, God's Story Matthew 6:19-24, 27:45-54

We are living in God's Epic Quest to fully restore His Kingdom here on earth.

We are all on journeys that are ultimately going somewhere.

Who are people turning to for answers about the ultimate truths of their life?

How is that working for you?

Common Characteristics of those who are opening themselves to God's work.

I've attended Christian events or services.

I'm open to Christianity's message and answers to life.

I see the differences between Christianity and other religions.

I'm aware of the uniqueness of Jesus Christ's life and claims.

I struggle to intellectually understand all the details.

I know I have done things that were wrong and hurt people.

I have a spiritual longing to make things right with God.

What does Jesus say is going on?

Original Sin leads to Spiritual Idolatry which leads to Personal Conflict.

Our personal perspectives...

are the Lights that guide us through life.

can have blind spots, biases, and bitterness that harm us!

Are not easily changed until we realize they are not working!

Focus on what is undeniable not on what is unexplainable.
